

Stolen Truck sighted

Posted October 28, 2017

On Thursday the owner of Canyon Ski Hill reported a suspicious Black Ford F150 truck at the ski hill. Both males in their early 20s appeared to be casing the facility and "playing dumb" advising the owner they were lost. The plate being B -- 2898.

The incident was reported to the Blackfalds RCMP.

RCMP advised that the truck was stolen and had been involved in stealing a couple of dirt bikes. The RCMP asked if the owner of the Ski Hill would provide a statement and potentially ID the guys from a line up.

On Thursday two dirt bikes were apprehended from a residence in Canyon Heights subdivision just west of the Canyon Ski Hill.

Yesterday, Friday October 27th, this same black truck was seen entering the same residence the dirt bikes had been apprehended from, around 5:30 PM.

Residents who saw the truck in Canyon Heights were unable to get the plate # as the truck sped out of the subdivision. The driver was a young male, early to mid 20s.

Both Blackfalds and Red Deer City RCMP have been notified. Should you see this vehicle please call the Blackfalds RCMP complaint line 403-885-3333.
