

Airdrie RCMP - Arrests Made in Connection With Bear-Spray Robbery at Cross Iron Mall

Posted October 31, 2017

As a result of numerous tips from member of the public, Airdrie RCMP have identified suspects in the bear-spray incident at the Cross Iron Mills food court last week.

Earlier today, Airdrie RCMP requested the assistance of Calgary Police Service to arrest 5 male youths identified as suspects in this event. The arrests were carried out without incident at three locations in Calgary including a school. The youths were transported to Airdrie RCMP detachment and criminal charges are pending. As these suspects are all under the age of 18, no names will be released.

The investigation is ongoing and investigators are looking into the possibility of additional persons being involved in the incident. The stolen vehicle involved has yet to be recovered.

The Airdrie RCMP wish to thank the members of the public who provided information that led to the successful conclusion of the case, as well as to the media and Calgary Police for their assistance.
