

UPDATE - Airdrie RCMP Investigate Shots Fired Complaint

Posted May 14, 2018

The Airdrie RCMP's General Investigative Section has been working continuously since last night's shooting in Kings Heights and has been able to gather and release new details.

The Airdrie RCMP have learned that the intended victim in the shooting was targeted. There is no further risk to the public. All parties involved in the matter reside in Calgary and are not believed to be associated to any gangs. Seven of the 10 persons arrested are youths and all parties are known to each other. The persons involved in the shooting had previously been at a house party within the community of Ravenswood.

On May 12, 2018 at approximately 10:45 pm, four shots were fired from point blank range at a black Lincoln SUV parked along Kingsmere Cove in Airdrie. The Lincoln SUV immediately took off from the area and headed northbound through Airdrie towards Highland Park Boulevard with the suspect vehicle, a white Mercedes SUV, giving chase. Airdrie RCMP officers, responding to the complaint of shots fired, were able to locate both vehicles and corner them on Highland Park Boulevard. A high risk vehicle arrest was executed on both vehicles resulting in the arrest of 10 persons.

Other RCMP resources including; the RCMP Police Dog Services, the Special Tactical Operations unit, and the Calgary RCMP Forensic Identification were deployed last night to assist with the investigation. A loaded firearm was located in a ditch not far from where the vehicles were stopped by Police. The firearm, a handgun, is believed to have been used in the shooting.

18-year-old Jaskaran Singh Sidhu of Calgary has been charged with six firearms offences including: discharging a firearm with intent to wound, maim, or disfigure and careless use of a firearm.

Sidhu was released from custody by the Court on a cash Recognizance. He is scheduled to appear in the Provincial Court of Alberta in Airdrie on June 14, 2018.

If you have information about this incident or can identify the person of interest, please call the Airdrie RCMP at 403-945-7200 or call your local police.
