

Airdrie RCMP seek additional suspect in home invasion

June 9, 2016

On May 29, 2016, at approximately 2:30 P.M. a home invasion occurred at a residence in the Woodside neighbourhood of Airdrie. Three male suspects entered the home and assaulted the occupants while stealing property from inside.

Jack Buckely, age 20, of Airdrie has been charged with three counts of Robbery, Break and Enter, Assault with a weapon and Assault causing bodily harm. He has been released from custody to appear in Airdrie Provincial court on June 16, 2016.

The second suspect has been identified as Ethan Faulkner, age 22 of Calgary. Charges have been sworn against Mr. Faulkner and there are currently warrants for his arrest for three counts of Robbery, Break and Enter, Assault with a weapon and Assault causing Bodily harm. Anyone with information on the whereabouts of Mr. Faulkner is asked to contact your local police service or Crime Stoppers.

The third suspect in this crime has yet to be identified and is described as a white male in his late 20s to early 30s, balding or short, light coloured hair. A composite sketch of this suspect has been provided (see right) and RCMP request the public's assistance to identify this person.

If you have information which you believe may assist police in their investigation, please call the Airdrie RCMP at (403) 945-7200. Should you wish to remain anonymous, you can contact Crime Stoppers by phone at 1.800.222.8477 (TIPS), by Internet at www.tipsubmit.com. You do not have to reveal your identity to Crime Stoppers, and if you provide information to Crime Stoppers that leads to an arrest(s), the recovery of stolen property, and/or a seizure of illicit drugs, you may be eligible for a cash reward.
