

Cochrane RCMP looking for tips

Posted August 21, 2017

The Cochrane RCMP have arrested and charged two male youths with the Robbery that occurred in the early morning hours of August 16th, 2017 in Cochrane, Alberta. Both males have been charged with one count of Robbery and one of the males has an additional charge of Assaulting a Police Officer. The names of the two accused males will not be released.

"Sometimes its a great combination of timely, anonymous tips from the public, great video surveillance in the area and excellent police work by the police officers on shift, that brings the investigation to a speedy conclusion" says Cst. Kary Moore.

The RCMP would like the public to come forward and reporting suspicious activities that they observed on the night of this occurrence.
