

Cochrane RCMP Unfounded School threats

Posted October 26, 2017

On October 25th 2017 at app 330 PM Cochrane RCMP received numerous calls from a young male stating that there was a shooting at the Springbank Middle School. As a precaution schools in the area were put in lock-down by the principals while police investigated. After an intensive search of all school no suspicious activity was discovered. Police continue to investigate the origin of the complaint. At no point was anyone in the schools or vicinity in any danger.

Anyone with information regarding this complaint please call the Cochrane RCMP at 403-932-2211.
