

Police Recover Six Stolen Vehicles and Charge Individuals Located Inside

Posted February 23, 2018

The relationship between the RCMP and the members of our communities is a partnership. We need residents to be the eyes and ears of their communities and to report suspicious activity as soon as they are aware. "Tips from the public were received and as a result we have laid multiple charges," said Constable Kary Moore with the Cochrane RCMP "Tips from the public, coupled with attentive police officers were crucial in the arrests that were made and the recovery of stolen vehicles and property."

The charged individuals from the below occurrences are listed as:

- Tylane Hunter (25) of Morley, has been charged with one count of being in possession of property obtained by crime over $5000 plus 11 additional charges. Hunter has been remanded and is scheduled to appear in Cochrane Court on February 27, 2018.
- Shawn Hunter (22) of Morley, has been charged with one count of being in possession of property obtained by crime over $5000 plus one additional charge. Hunter is scheduled to appear in Cochrane Court on March 13, 2018.
