

Cochrane RCMP seek assistance identifying potential witnesses to Bragg Creek ATM thefts

Posted October 30, 2019

Cochrane RCMP are seeking the public's assistance in identifying 3 potential witnesses to a string of business break ins and ATM thefts that have occurred in the Bragg Creek and Turner valley areas between September 29th and October 22nd 2019.

"We are looking at speaking to these three individuals as we believe that they might have information about these crimes," says Corporal Troy Savinkoff of the Cochrane RCMP. Police believe that these break ins are related and Cochrane as well as Turner Valley RCMP are coordinating their investigations.

Corporal Savinkoff went on to say, "We understand the impact that these crimes have had on these traditionally quiet communities and are committed to holding those responsible accountable for their actions."

Public assistance is sought in relation to this incident. If you have information about this, or any other crime(s), and you want to remain anonymous, you can contact Crime Stoppers by phone at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS), by internet at www.tipsubmit.com, or by SMS (check your local Crime Stoppers [www.crimestoppers.ab.ca] for instructions on how to do it.) You can also report online at www.P3Tips.com or by using the "P3 Tips" app available through the Apple App or Google Play Store.

You do not have to reveal your identity to Crime Stoppers, and if you provide information to Crime Stoppers that leads to an arrest(s), the recovery of stolen property, and/or a seizure of illicit drugs, you may be eligible for a cash reward.

