

Didsbury RCMP - Theft of family heirlooms and urn

Posted October 14, 2017

Didsbury RCMP are appealing for the return of some priceless family heirlooms including an urn containing ashes taken during a break in yesterday.

On Thursday, October 12, between 8:30am and 1:30pm, unknown suspect(s) forced entry to a home on Range Road 35 in the Dogpound area, west of Didsbury. Once inside, numerous items were stolen including family heirlooms; two gold rings and a small red wooden urn which contained the ashes of the home owner's deceased husband.

Also stolen was a black 2001 Chevrolet S10 truck with Alberta License Plate BSR2779 which is still outstanding.

"Crimes like this really tug at your heartstrings," says Staff-Sergeant Chad Fournier, Didsbury RCMP detachment commander. "We think that the urn was taken by someone who did not realize what it was. To them, it is of no value at all, but to the family, it is priceless. We hope that these heirlooms can be returned to the family and welcome any assistance to do that."
