

Didsbury RCMP - Final arrest made in kidnapping investigation

Posted February 14, 2018

Didsbury RCMP have arrested the fifth and final person sought in connection with a January 23 Kidnapping investigation.

On February 12, Tanya Dawn Hoomana (39) of Didsbury turned herself in to the custody of Didsbury RCMP. A bail hearing was held for Hoomana on charges of Kidnapping with a firearm, Extortion with a firearm and Possession of Property obtained by crime. She has been released from custody and is scheduled to appear on March 5th, 2018 in Didsbury Provincial Court.

"I want to thank the citizens of Didsbury and Olds for all the assistance we received through the course of this investigation." Says Staff Sergeant Chad Fournier, Didsbury RCMP detachment commander. " We are confident that all of the people involved in these allegations have been identified and are not seeking any additional suspects."
