

Hanna RCMP seek owners of recovered property

Posted January 6, 2018

RCMP in Hanna are looking for the owners of property recovered from a stolen vehicle on New Years Eve.

On December 31 at 10:25 pm, a collision occurred on Highway 9 at Range Road 161 in Starland County. Immediately after the collision, occupants of one of the involved vehicles, a silver Ford F-150, got into another truck that was following. Officers from Hanna RCMP attended and determined that the silver Ford F-150 had been reported stolen from Red Deer on December 24th.

Inside the stolen vehicle, more property that is believed to be stolen was recovered. Investigators are seeking to identify the rightful owners of a silver slip tank, body worn gas monitors, hand operated gas pump and connectors. Photos of the items in question are attached.

Anyone with information on the ownership of these items or with information about the two male and two female occupants of the stolen F-150 are asked to contact the Hanna RCMP at 403-854-3393.

If you have information about this, or any other crime(s), and you want to remain anonymous, you can contact Crime Stoppers by phone at 1-800-222-8477 (TIPS), by internet at www.tipsubmit.com/, or by SMS (check your local Crime Stoppers [www.crimestoppers.ab.ca/] for instructions on how to do it.) You do not have to reveal your identity to Crime Stoppers, and if you provide information to Crime Stoppers that leads to an arrest(s), the recovery of stolen property, and/or a seizure of illicit drugs, you may be eligible for a cash reward.
