

Innisfail RCMP investigate armed robbery

Posted December 20, 2016

On December 17, 2016 at approximately 9 pm RCMP Innisfail responded to a complaint of an armed robbery at the MAC's Convenience store in Innisfail Alberta. One unknown male entered the store and produced a handgun and demanded cash and cigarettes. The lone night shift worker complied and gave the male an undisclosed amount of cash, the male fled shortly after. The shift worker was not injured.

The male is described as:

- approx 5'5" tall
- Skinny
- White skin, dark eyes
- Wearing a jacket, dark blue and grey
- Deep clear voice
- Face and most of his body were covered

RCMP responded to the area immediately however were unsuccessful in locating the male, however the investigation is ongoing.
