

Innisfail RCMP Investigating Suspicious Activity at John Wilson Elementary School Innisfail

Posted May 23, 2017

Innisfail RCMP received a complaint that an elderly female approached a student at the John Wilson Elementary School in Innisfail. The incident occurred between 3:10 pm and 3:20 pm on May 17 as school was letting out for the day on Wednesday. There would have been a large amount of parents and other students outside when this incident occurred.

A male and a female between 50 and 60 years old, driving a four door car with black on the bottom and red on the upper part, asked a young student to get into their car. The child did not get into the car and went inside the school and told staff about the incident.

The School has communicated with families about this incident and the Innisfail RCMP continue to investigate.

If anyone has any information about this incident please contact the Innisfail RCMP.

Innisfail RCMP