

Innisfail RCMP investigate vehicle theft

Posted November 24, 2017

On November 14th 2016 Innisfail RCMP responded to a complaint of a carjacking. Two unknown males were test driving a vehicle with the owner of the vehicle. The driver of the vehicle produced a knife and ordered the owner of the vehicle, who was in the back seat to get out. Both males, the driver and passenger then fled in the stolen vehicle. The owner of the vehicle was uninjured.

The male driver is described as:

- Late 30s
- Brown pony tail tucked into his hat
- Wearing a black hat with an RDS sticker
- Wearing a black leather jacket, blue jeans and white Adidas Shoes
- Tattoo high on his neck

The male passenger is described as:

- Late 20s
- Light brown hair
- Ball cap
- Oakley sunglasses
- Wearing a black Volcom hoodie and jeans

Innisfail RCMP are looking for any information that would assist police in identifying these two males.
