

Central Alberta District Integrated Crime Reduction Unit Lay Multiple Charges

Posted November 14, 2017

On November 9, 2017, the Integrated Crime Reduction Unit (ICRU), Leduc RCMP and Police Dog Services effected the safe arrests of a male and a female operating a stolen vehicle. The vehicle had been determined to be stolen out of St. Albert and then subsequently transported to Leduc.

A subsequent investigation revealed that the male had been involved in three Break and Enters in the Leduc area, while the female had been involved in at least one. Family residences had been targeted during these Break and Enters. Several stolen items were recovered during this investigation and returned to the rightful owners.

32 year old Kyle Nicholas RAMSDALE, of Leduc, has been charged with several offences, including:

- Break and Enter X 3
- Possession of Property Obtained by Crime Over $5000
- Driving While Disqualified

34 year old Tanya Marie CORNELSSEN, of Leduc, has been charged with several offences, including:

- Break and Enter
- Possession of Property Obtained by Crime Over $5000

RAMSDALE has been remanded in custody and will be making his first appearance in court on November 16, 2017.

CORNELSSEN has been released from custody and is subject to a number of court-imposed conditions while awaiting her court appearance.

ICRU is a recently formed RCMP team whose mandate includes identifying high risk and dangerous prolific offenders in Alberta and aggressively putting a stop to their activities. Property crime, including Theft of Vehicles and Break and Enters continue to be a priority for the RCMP. ICRU is committed to increased inter-agency communication, shared criminal intelligence and a strategic focus on prolific offenders. ICRU is one component of the Alberta RCMP's crime reduction strategy.
