

Olds RCMP Recover Stolen Truck and Make Arrests

Posted July 14, 2018

On July 12, 2018 at approximately 11:00 AM, the Olds RCMP received a complaint of a suspicious vehicle east of Olds near Township Road 322 and Highway 791. Police arrived and located a blue Ford F-350 truck that had been stolen out of Red Deer earlier that day. The driver had fled on foot and a female passenger was taken into custody. Neighbours in the area were alerted to the description of the male who had fled and Red Deer Police Dog Section was called to assist in the search.

Several hours later, a neighbour notified police when the suspect was seen in a nearby field. Police attended the location and the male was taken into custody a short time later.

Khoda Allyn Sullivan, 33 years of age, has been charged with eight offences including Possession of Stolen Property over $5000.00, Resisting Arrest, Possession of a Controlled Substance and remaining counts of Failing to Comply with a Recognizance. Tia Marie Cobbe, 32 years of age, has been charged with one count of Possession of Stolen Property over $5000.00. Warrants from several jurisdictions were executed on both subjects.

The Olds RCMP would like to thank the observant residents of the area for their initial call of the suspicious vehicle as well as their assistance in having the individuals taken into custody.
