

Olds RCMP seek public assistance in identifying suspect in “Jason” mask

Posted August 10, 2018

The Olds RCMP were dispatched early August 9th to a break and enter at the Dodge Dealership in Olds where three different vehicles were stolen.

At 2:46 a.m., the RCMP received a complaint that a suspect vehicle came to the dealership, rammed a barricade and stole two Dodge Ram trucks and a Jeep Grande Cherokee. The suspects left, each driving a different vehicle.

Investigation shows that three male suspects were dropped off by a Ford truck, and the suspects gained access to the dealership. One person remained in the cab of the Ford truck. A cleaner was working in the dealership at the time, but there was no interaction between the cleaner and the suspects.

The RCMP have attached surveillance photos showing a male wearing a “Jason” mask, a black t-shirt with white writing, blue plaid shirt and blue jeans. Descriptions are not available in relation to the other two suspects.

If you recognize this male or have any information about this investigation, please call the Olds RCMP at 403-556-3324 or call your local police detachment.
