

Ponoka RCMP investigate a Home Invasion

April 21, 2016

On April 18th 2016 Police responded to a home invasion to a residence on 51 Street. The suspect knocked loudly on the front door and the lone male occupant of the house opened the door. The suspect shoved the occupant backwards into the residence approximately five feet. A fight ensued and the suspect fled the residence. The suspect is described as a male, tall, bigger frame with short blonde hair. He has a thorn tattoo and a Nova Scotia/Halifax tattoo on his left hand and arm. He was driving a white Nissan Altima. The Nissan symbol is missing from the back of the vehicle.

A composite is shown here (right) and Police are asking for the Public's assistance to identify this individual. Do not approach this person simply call the Ponoka RCMP or the Police of your area and let them deal with him for your safety.
