

St. Albert RCMP investigating ATM theft at Esso gas station

Posted September 2, 2016

On August 30th, 2016 at approximately 4:50 AM, St. Albert RCMP were alerted to a possible break, enter and theft of an ATM machine at the ESSO gas station located at 220 St. Albert Trail. Officers arrived within minutes and observed a large hole in the south side of the gas station convenience store with walls, glass, merchandise all scattered about. It appeared that a truck had backed up into the wall and stole the ATM. A white truck was seen in the area prior to police arrival.

The ATM was recovered on August 30th at approximately 11:30 AM in Stony Plain area with extensive damage. This investigation is ongoing and St. Albert RCMP obtained a picture of the suspect from the Esso video surveillance. The suspect is described as:

- stocky male
- about 6 feet tall
- dressed in all black
- wearing a balaclava
