

Strathcona County RCMP Investigate Stolen Memorial Plaques

Posted December 21, 2016

Strathcona County RCMP are requesting the public's assistance in gathering information on the following crime:

Sometime between the hours of 5:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on November 24, 2016 four plaques were stolen from the Legion of Frontiersmen War Memorial located on Highway 14 and Range Road 205.

The monument is recognized provincially and nationally as a historical monument that is also a regional landmark for local residents.

The first plaque reads: "Dedicated to the memory of Frontiersmen who fell in the Great War 1914-1918, erected by their comrades July 1935." The second plaque reads: "In memory of those who fell during the Second World War." Additional plaques commemorate Dominion Commandants, Brigadier A. Mack, (Oct. 5 1898-Oct. 9 1990) and Colonel Lewis Scott (died 1965).

Strathcona County RCMP continue to investigate this incident.

If you have any information about this, or any other crime, please call the Strathcona County RCMP at (780) 467-7741, or call your local police detachment.
