

Tofield RCMP request assistance identifying armed robbery suspects

Posted February 15, 2017

Tofield RCMP are asking the public's assistance in identifying two armed robbery suspects. On Oct. 28, 2016 at approximately 1:15 p.m., Tofield RCMP responded to a report of an armed robbery at Lisa's Market in Rley. A woman entered the store and purchased an item then left. The woman and a man returned a short time later in disguise and robbed the store with a handgun. The suspects left the store with an undisclosed amount of money and cigarettes then fled the area in a small blue car. No one was injured.

Members along with assistance from the Viking and Vegreville RCMP detachments made extensive patrols in the area but the suspects and vehicle were not located.

The male suspect is described as:

- Approximately 6'0"
- Heavy in stature
- Wearing camouflage pants

The female suspect is described as:

- Caucasian
- Approximately 30-years-old
- Brown long hair
- Black pants and jacket
- Slender build
- Black rimmed glasses with clear lenses

If you have information about this investigation, please call the Tofield RCMP at 780-662-3353 or call your local police.
