Saddle Thefts

The Sundre RCMP are seeking the public's assistance in finding and apprehending individuals involved in a rural break and enter on December 1, 2016 on Range Road 42 and Twp 324. Several antique items were stolen from the property including as well as two saddles. One of the saddles is particularly unique. It is an Ocean Front Saddling custom made women's all-around saddle, dark brown in colour and has Ocean Front Saddling stamped on the saddle. The saddle has leather under-skirting and twisted stirrup leathers, basket weave stamping on skirt and fenders and stamped with the serial number "89". Anyone with information on this crime is asked to contact the Sundre RCMP detachment at 403-638-3675. You can also call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-

TIPS (8477). All information will be kept confidential. Crime Stoppers may pay a reward for information that leads to an arrest, recovery of stolen property, seizure of drugs, and the location of wanted persons.

Christmas Eve Thieves Busted

During the early morning of December 24, 2016, police were called to a rural residence on RR 44 and Twp 340 for a suspicious vehicle. The homeowner was away but had a friend tending to the property. The friend located the car parked on the road with footprints leading onto the property. Two persons were then seen leaving the property and entered the vehicle and drove away. Police were able to intercept the vehicle which contained a male and female. The investigation revealed that the two persons were going through outbuildings on the property. Tyler Campkin (33) of Sundre, AB was criminally charged for Break and Enter, Possessing Break and Enter Instruments, Possession of a Weapon for a Dangerous Purpose and Possession of Methamphetamines. Amy Adams (33) of Sundre, Ab was criminally charged for Break and Enter, Possessing Break and Enter Instruments and Possession of a Weapon for a Dangerous. Both are scheduled to appear in Provincial court in Didsbury on January 24, 2017.
