

Christmas Eve Thieves Busted

Posted January 16, 2017

During the early morning of December 24, 2016, police were called to a rural residence on Range Road 44 and Township 340 for a suspicious vehicle. Two persons were then seen leaving the property and entered the vehicle and drove away. Police were able to intercept the vehicle which contained a male and female.

Tyler Campkin (33) of Sundre, AB was criminally charged for Break and Enter, Possessing Break and Enter Instruments, Possession of a Weapon for a Dangerous Purpose and Possession of Methamphetamines.

Amy Adams (33) of Sundre, AB was criminally charged for Break and Enter, Possessing Break and Enter Instruments and Possession of a Weapon for a Dangerous Purpose.

Both are scheduled to appear in Provincial court in Didsbury on January 24, 2017.

If you have information about this investigation, please call Sundre RCMP Detachment at (403) - 638-3675